Program

Our speaker was Dave Roman on Creativity & Humor. He gave examples of the creativity of mail order people and has debunked about 95% of them. Companies are also outsourcing creativity to compete producing newer products and ideas. A test of adults over 40 showed that only 5% were creative while 95% of children at 5 were creative. Creativity is different things to different people. Which might explain that kinky Indian story the club participated in.
